Bledor Pireci

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

I'm Bledor and I'm a postgraduate student at university of Prishtina in the department of "Computer engineering". I've been programming for a couple of years now as a freelancer and with some companies on short term contracts. I have quite a good knowledge and experience on software development especially with react.js and react native.
I'm a hardworking, understanding and very generous person. I'm communicative and im thirsty for learning new things especially on programming.
