PROFILE

With a dynamic blend of expertise in both front-end and back-end development, I bring a holistic approach to crafting immersive digital experiences. My passion lies in seamlessly integrating cutting-edge design with robust functionality to deliver innovative solutions that captivate users and drive business objectives.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Front-end Developer Internship

KosovaOutsource

Aug 2024 – Oct 2024

Prishtina, Kosovo

As a Front-end Developer intern at KosovaOutsource, I gained hands-on experience over three months, working closely with a skilled team to enhance my technical skills in front-end development. During this time, I focused on building responsive and visually appealing web interfaces, optimizing code for performance, and collaborating with designers to bring concepts to life. This role deepened my knowledge of HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React, and strengthened my ability to work effectively in a team setting to deliver high-quality projects.

Front-end Developer

In the realm of front-end development, I've cultivated a strong foundation of skills and expertise, backed by a portfolio brimming with successful projects that highlight my ability to create captivating user interfaces and seamless digital experiences. My journey in this field has been marked by a dedication to excellence and a passion for pushing the boundaries of what's possible in web design.

Back-end Development

As an enthusiastic learner in the realm of back-end development, I am dedicated to expanding my skill set and deepening my understanding of the foundational technologies that power the functionality of websites and web applications. While I may not have direct project experience to showcase at this stage, my commitment to continuous learning and exploration positions me as a proactive and driven individual eager to contribute to dynamic development teams.
